Advice or information/Remuneration

We only offer home insurance from Gresham Insurance Company Limited (which is a member of the Aviva Group) and Hiscox Insurance Company Limited, and we act for and on behalf of these insurers.

Barclays Home Insurance is underwritten by Gresham Insurance Company Limited, the insurer, who when a policy is sold pays us a percentage commission of the total premium. If the type of policy sold also reaches a profit surplus the insurer then pays us a further commission.

This insurance is provided on a non-advised information only basis, so we will not make a personal recommendation about the suitability of this insurance.

Barclays Premium Home Insurance is underwritten by Hiscox Insurance Company Limited. We act as an introducer to Hiscox Underwriting Limited, who arrange Home Insurance for Barclays Premier customers, on behalf of Hiscox Insurance Company Limited, the insurer (see <https://www.barclays.co.uk/premier-banking/current-accounts> for qualification criteria).

Change of underwriter

From time to time for commercial reasons Barclays Insurance Services Company Limited may decide to change its chosen insurer. In such circumstances we will write to you at least 21 days before your current insurance expires with details of the new proposed insurer (currently Gresham Insurance Company Limited) and any other current changes to the insurance.

Sending you information

We must give you some information by law or to allow our relationship to work properly. This includes information about changes in the way your policy works, or about other changes in our products and services that affect you. We may also need to ask you to do something or to give us some information.

We will contact you using the details you give us. Where we send information to you, we will send it to the most recent address or mobile number we have for you. If you don't tell us promptly about a change in your details, you may not receive information that could be important – or it could fall into the wrong hands.

Where we can, we will let you choose how you want us to contact you, for example by email or online or by post.

Where we communicate with you electronically we will send important messages on matters that relate to your account using texts, email and other digital methods. Where we hold your mobile number or email we will send you a text, email or other electronic message reminding you to view the message, when that is legally required or we reasonably think it is appropriate.

Once we've sent a message to you, we will assume you have received it, which is why it's important to look out for things like emails or texts from us. We are always working to make our services more convenient and flexible so we may launch new ways of communicating with you in the future.

These agencies may in turn share your personal information with other organisations. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Once you open an account with us, we will share account data with the credit reference agencies on an ongoing basis.

If false or inaccurate information is provided to us and fraud is identified, details may be passed to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity.

The Credit Reference Agency Information Notice (CRAIN) describes how the three main credit reference agencies in the UK each use and share personal data. The CRAIN is available on the credit reference agencies' websites:

- www.callcredit.co.uk/crain
- www.equifax.co.uk/crain
- www.experian.co.uk/crain
